in this issue we've covered hot technology fields like robotics and 3d printing as well as give you a peek at what we feel may be the top 20 jobs in the future we've also covered a relatively unknown field called knowledge management and got a chance to speak with a real life professional to give some great advice and insights into this field for those with a love for the written word you don't want to miss our article on journalism where it'll give you the lowdown on the profession and tells you how to get there as i write this i reflect on my life the hits misses the bold and triumphant moments the mistakes joys and life lessons i'm thrown back to a particularly quiet night picking up calls during a graveyard shift at my first job where i spent most of my time robotically going through verbal scripts to handle customer complaints not very fun mind you isn't it nice that our jobs are so easy and we don't have to think or do much asked my colleague vee as he played some online games while handling a customer call nice i asked this can't be what work should be mind numbingly routine tasks requiring almost zero thought work must have passion challenges and purpose which this place definitely offer without these what's the point you know vee continued you should do your own business or write a book all you ever do is write plus you always have a ton of great ideas the air around me seemed easier to breathe as if immersed with opportunity now i recognize why this was my defining moment even though i'd spent much of my time writing thinking and talking with people my thoughts and ideas i didn't consider a career or business where i can apply what came naturally to me my love for writing ideation and application over the next few weeks i left my job and got myself into a pr advertising agency to start learning and applying my craft you see our lives are full of defining moments some we invite others we don't then there are those we ignore moments that would've could've or should've become defining moments if we only dared to turn left or right instead of continuing straight on i've been there i'm sure you have as well having regrets is a horrible thing to feel let alone dwell on these defining moments have the power to fundamentally change the course of our lives as we fast approach the first half of 2015 it's a good time to reflect on how far we've come or maybe where we've fell short and think about what you're doing or not doing to live the life you want that's why for this issue of the easyuni university guidebook we've re-done how we create our careers careers section with the hope that it'll not only educate but inspire you we also added new sections like beinspired featuredmentor and featuredstudent that showcases people who dared to chase their dreams we hope it will help you recognize and react to your defining moments when they come and trust me they will come i always tell my children always step forward when you see an open door even if you don't know where it will lead you i've try to live off this mantra but doors can be scary when you can't see what's on the other side my advice to you stop look around spot the open doors then choose stay put or step forward you know the right choice trust it the question is do you dare be awesome enjoy the read with this issue we chose to be rebellious we chose to throw everything we knew from our previous guidebooks out the window and empower those of you whose choice of career is usually responded to with a disappointed oh we decided to make a special issue for you our creatives our country s creatives who ve contributed to centuries of culture art literature music and philosophy and are yet scrutinised and repeatedly questioned on their decision of career malaysia s creatives we ve got you whether you re currently pursuing the creative arts or on the fence about it this guidebook s for you we start off with busting the myths about the creative arts the approving nod one gets having decided to pursue the sciences as compared to the frown and are you sures when it comes to the topic of the arts spoiler alert yes they re all myths then we re off to exploring some of the coolest buys and creative festivals you can find in malaysia as well as a handy list of the exciting companies you can intern at as a student of the arts what s more we ve covered courses careers we ve never touched on before to serve as useful guides as you pave your way through the creative arts by the way did you know that iceland is a haven for the arts as well you can flip through our study abroad section for more on that our goal for this issue as with every other issue is to guide you to and through what could be some of the best years of your life during your university years but as we ve come to see those of you hoping to pursue the creative arts may need a little bit of extra cheer to light the spark in you and so came about easyuni s the creative issue there s a place in the world for each and every one of you and if anyone parents friends teachers tell you any different well they re quite wrong you can quote us on that over the years the university experience has changed for young people higher education study is expensive graduate employment isn t guaranteed in an age of fast evolving technology and the stakes feel high in the backpacker s guide to university dr jo phillips and martin griffin draw on their collective 45 years experience teaching undergraduates and sixth formers to bring students the ultimate guide to making the most of their time in further education written in a warm and approachable style they offer clear and practical guidance supported by key research in the field together jo and martin demystify the language of university and offer the very best advice on adjusting to university study campus life and independent learning they share clear and easy tasks structured so that students can work through them sequentially from pre arrival to the end of the first year and beyond this book urges students to embrace the backpacker approach a transformative mindset that will empower them to immerse themselves in the spirit of adventure and seize every opportunity that university life has to offer essential reading for students applying to university current undergraduates in the early stages of their course their parents and teachers by the time you get your hands on this magazine a wave of changes is expected to happen tension of the recent spm exams would have plummeted as the holiday spirit envelops us and while everything is bright and merry some of you could be at the facon education fair in klcc this december deciding which course to take whilst silently hoping you get aces on your actual spm results nagging thoughts you would rather muffle with the latest star wars movie or new year s dinner party nerve wracking it is change is exciting it s a cycle that all of us operate in and that s totally fine as i ve been there too taking over the magazine with a fresh team of young writers was a tough experience but it was a great opportunity to decide and flesh out new ideas thoughts of failing trouble our minds but those are the very things that hinder us from growing after having said that i would encourage all of you to be recipe for change don t be afraid to cook up some trouble
