this is he who came by water and blood jesus christ not only by water but by water and blood and it is the spirit who bears witness because the spirit is truth for there are three that bear witness in heaven the father the word and the holy spirit and these are one and there are three that bear witness on the earth the spirit the water and the blood and these three agree as one if we receive the witness of men the witness of god is greater for this is the witness of god which he testified of his son he who believes in the son of god has the witness in himself he who does not believe god has made him a liar because he has not believed the testimony that god has given his son and this is the testimony that god has given us eternal life and this life is in the son he who has the son has life he who does not have the son does not have life these things i have written to you who believe in the name of the son of god that you may know you have eternal life and that you continue to believe in the name of the son of god intervention narratives examines the contradictory cultural representations of the us intervention in afghanistan that help to justify an imperial foreign policy these narratives involve projecting afghans as brave anti communist warriors who suffered the consequences of american disengagement with the region following the end of the cold war as victimized women who can be empowered through enterprise as innocent dogs who need to be saved by us soldiers and as terrorists who deserve punishment for 9 11 given that much of public political life now involves affect rather than knowledge feelings rather than facts familiar recurring tropes of heroism terrorism entrepreneurship and canine love make the war easier to comprehend and elicit sympathy for us military forces an indictment of us policy bose demonstrates that contemporary imperialism operates on an ideologically diverse cultural terrain to enlist support for the war across the political spectrum once i got started i couldn t stop the history of e jeanne began around 1999 really ramped up when 9 11 hit our nation became more organized and intentional thereafter and continued until 2005 you see e jeanne was a precursor of currently popular blogs although we called her an e zine she was assembled early in the morning right after my morning devotions in fact i realize that many of my morning devotions somehow crept into the e editorials and then forwarded by e mail to over 300 people all around the world i did this two or three days a week for 10 years like i said maybe i am a little crazy this is not a book you can rush through unless you are only looking for jokes and i am astonished how small the font has to be in order to fit everything in you re going to need a bookmark to help mark your spot always my goal was to fulfill let your good works shine out for all to see so that everyone will praise your heavenly father matthew 5 16
