originally published in 1980 this work answers the crucial question of how social change should be guided in the developing countries professor varma begins by posing the problems of the general scope of modernization and the general criteria used in the modernization process he examines carefully some of the models that have been used for this purpose in the past providing extensive summaries of the views on modernization of theorists in various social science disciplines including sociology politics economics and anthropology and stresses the importance of these views in guiding policy decisions the book concludes with a comparison of the development processes of the united states the soviet union china japan and india

this book presents essays that address fundamental issues in social and cultural theory by viewing them through the lens of aesthetic theory drawing on the aesthetic theories of theodor w adorno gregory bateson jean marie guyau talcott parsons and georg simmel it suggests a new take on basic sociological concepts and methodologies the chapters cover a wide range of topics including the sensuality of social action social construction of unreality and the rolling stones enduring success as a reflection of our society and culture the book s title sociology in a new key refers to a classic work by susanne k langer whose philosophy in a new key argued for a reorientation of modern philosophical thought based on a thorough account of symbolism in general and of the arts in particular in this way the basic ideas and assumptions of the philosophical tradition are transposed to new understandings and perspectives after all it was Georg Simmel himself who claimed to have gained several of his general theoretical insights via the detour of reflections on the essence of art the book will appeal to scholars and students of the sociology of the arts and music and to anyone interested in the intersection of social theory and aesthetics

Routledge Library Editions Development will re-issue works which address economic, political and social aspects of development published over more than four decades. These books trace the emergence of development as one of the most important contemporary issues and one of the key areas of study for modern social science. The books cover the most important themes within development and include studies of Latin America, Africa and Asia. Authors include Sir Alexander Cairncross, W. Arthur Lewis, Lord Peter Bauer and Cristóbal Kay. An extensive collection of previously hard-to-access or out-of-print books, this set presents an unrivalled opportunity to build up a wealth of material in the field of development studies with a particular focus upon economic and political concerns. The volumes in the collection offer both a global overview of the history of development in the twentieth century and a huge variety of case studies on the development of individual nations.
