this collection develops a body of research around critically acclaimed author helen oyeyemi putting her in dialogue with other contemporary writers and tracing her relationship with other works and literary traditions spanning the settings and cultural traditions of britain nigeria and the caribbean her work highlights the interconnected histories and cultures wrought by multiple waves of enslavement colonization and migration this collection describes how oyeyemi's work engages in an innovative way with gothic literature reworking the tropes of a western gothic tradition in order to examine the fraught process of establishing identity in a postcolonial context it demonstrates ways in which oyeyemi is also a trouble making feminist voice employing feminist strategies to rewrite genres parody literary forms and critique the characterization of woman in literature finally it suggests that oyeyemi's oeuvre marks a new direction in postcolonial studies as she writes within and about the former colonial centre of britain whilst foregrounding enduring colonial legacies that are referenced through the physical and psychological trauma associated with migration displacement racism and contested national identities a stunning new novel about a young jazz singer from the acclaimed author of the icarus girl two plays exploring the pain of living and the difficulty of dying by a sensational new writer livesimply is an initiative launched by the catholic relief agency cafod to encourage lifestyles that are simple sustainable and that show solidarity with the poor it has been the focus of much of their recent fundraising asking people to take the 1 per cent challenge for example whereby they live on 99 per cent of their income and give the rest away it was originally intended to come to an end in the spring of 2008 but such is the momentum that it has built up over 50 organisations such as pax christi the catholic women s network etc have become affiliates promoting livesimply to their members it will now continue and this is the first livesimply resource book all royalties go to cafod for relief and development work a radical collection of love stories from african women the collection combines the confidence of established and award winning writers with the tentativeness and originality of budding writers from africa and the african diaspora focusing on love and radically debunking the myth about african women being poor and helpless victims this anthology rather depicts their strength complexity and diversity meet the women writers who defied convention to craft some of literature s strangest tales from frankenstein to the haunting of hill house and beyond frankenstein was just the beginning horror stories and other weird fiction wouldn t exist without the women who created it from gothic ghost stories to psychological horror to science fiction women have been primary architects of speculative literature of all sorts and their own life stories are as intriguing as their fiction everyone knows about mary shelley creator of frankenstein who was rumored to keep her late husband s heart in her desk drawer but have you heard of margaret mad madge cavendish who wrote a science fiction epic 150 years earlier and liked to wear topless gowns to the theater if you know the astounding work of shirley jackson whose novel the haunting of hill house was reinvented as a netflix series then try the psychological hauntings of violet paget who was openly involved in long term romantic relationships with women in the victorian era you ll meet celebrated icons ann radcliffe v c andrews forgotten wordsmiths eli colter ruby jean jensen and today s vanguard helen oyeyemi curated reading lists point you to their most spine chilling tales part biography part reader s guide the engaging write ups and detailed reading lists will introduce you to more than a hundred authors and over two hundred of their mysterious and spooky novels novellas and stories
